War on Islam after 911

Guerrilla warfare is a form of irregular warfare in which a small group of combatants, such as paramilitary personnel, armed civilians, or irregulars, use military tactics including ambushes, sabotage, raids, petty warfare, hit-and-run tactics, and mobility to fight a larger and less-mobile traditional military. Guerrilla groups are a type of violent non-state actor.

A paramilitary is a semi-militarized force whose organizational structure, tactics, training, subculture, and (often) function are similar to those of a professional military, but which is formally not part of a government's armed forces.[1]

Maybe:

Iraq = Turkey

Afghanistan = Egypt (all of it is radicalized)

Dan 8:9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land.

- When it says Syria it doesn't say north (which it is) but uses East
- We have Syria (Seleucus empire) and Egypt (Ptolemaic empire). Just like in the history of Raphia.
- Why glorious land introduced here?

Dn 11

- Egypt = world
- Glorious land = USA
- KS = USSR [we know it's from the East, like Syria]

For us the key area is the USA, the glorious land.

In the fall of Greece, the most difficult or intriguing is Egypt. If you ask anyone, which one story they know, there's even movies of Actium.

So why is the glorious land introduced in the history? It's in between them, so instead of saying 'Cole Syria' it just says glorious land. Wasn't Lebanon supposed to be part of the glorious land? Also Panium was at the border of the Jordan. So the glorious land is introduced, if we are comfortable to the idea of the glorious land being connected to Syria, then it is because it was the land that Greece had. And this is about parallel kingdoms, about Greece falling and Rome ascending, that transition. So not only Rome takes the north and the south, but also this strategic land.

Sept 11, 1840 there's the war in which Beirut is taken by European countries (they thus take Syria) {Litch's quote}
